

XM Satellite Radio is the best informative service I have at home and in my car. I can't think of going back to public radio. I am willing to pay for any extra service to receive music, news, and public service issues without commercials.